IGCAT Voice

IGCAT's work was enriched this year with the inclusion of new World Region of Gastronomy candidates and we wish to thank our international friends and colleagues for venturing into this new chapter with us. We are truly humbled to work with such wonderful experts!

On this note, we held our 8th Annual General Meeting on Monday 20 December, during which we celebrated many successes over the last five years of the European Region of Gastronomy Award including:

At the meeting, the 2022 International Food Gift Challenge, European Young Chef Award and Food Film Menu competitions were also launched. Then, IGCAT members also agreed criteria to select and publish a list of Top Websites for Foodie Travellers in 2022 - please follow IGCAT on social media to learn more about this exciting new project!

IGCAT Staff and Executive Board wish you and yours a blessed and beautiful end to this calendar year. May your hearts be filled with happiness and your stomachs be filled with really great food!

Happy New Year!

Diane Dodd, Fabrizia Toccoli, Raúl Torres, Julia Benzinger, Niccolò Casini
